

CVSTOS – «What is Love?», by Constella Astana et Almaty, Kazakhstan

CVSTOS presented separately in Astana and Almaty during two official events organised as private receptions its exclusive model “PROUD TO BE KAZAKH” and the Re-belle collection, thereby bringing love to the spotlight, the theme chosen for the occasion.

On 8 and 9 October, Constella, represented by Zhanna Khan (CEO), the exclusive distributor of CVSTOS brand in Kazakhstan, organised two private parties called “What is Love?” in Almaty and in Astana Capital.

Placed under the sign of love, these events celebrated this feeling, both famous and legendary, expressed separately, according to the philosophy of jewellery brands present, invited by Zhanna Khan (CEO of Constella).

Antonio Terranova, the artistic director of the CVSTOS brand, has presented his flagship product “PROUD TO BE KAZAKH”, renowned today with official figures of the country, as well as the Re-Belle collection, expressing in this manner his vision on love, in front of an audience of 200 carefully selected guests, among whom Aliya Nazarbayeva, daughter of the Kazakh president, who was captivated by the sparkle of precious stones and metals used on the female models of CVSTOS brand.

The events were chained, with the famous “Déjà vu” ballet from Kiev, which performed different types of dances, embellished by exceptional pieces of jewellery represented by other guest brands, and by watchmaking exclusively by CVSTOS. During this show mixing, beauty and harmony jewelry emphasised the choreographic themes in accordance with the brands.

The event was closed with a mini-concert by the exclusive performance of Haddaway, a real highlight of the evening, who performed his famous song “What is Love”.

